Abstract
To understand the activities, expenditure behaviors, impressions and the purposes of tourists visiting Taiwan, the Tourism Bureau runs the “2001 Annual Survey on Visitors Expenditure and Trends” and provides the authorities in Taiwan with references for designing and improving domestic recreational facilities, for outlining international advertising in sightseeing and operating the marketing strategies, and for estimating foreign exchange in the tourism industry. 5,006 valid samples are acquired after interviewing visitors—who are making their departure—in CKS International Airport and Kaohsiung International Airport.
